

Imbedded In the New Orleans Culture
A Tribute to the Mardi Gras Indians
One-Of-A-Kind
Collectables

From the Artists

Concepcion "Connie" Tregre

All works have been done to preserve a rich heritage of the Mardi Gras Indians. These are one-of-a-kind paintings that show the soulfulness of the Mardi Gras Indians and the spirit of the artist.

The sale of these paintings will help to continue the work of the individual or tribe represented in the paintings.

Join Concepcion "Connie" Tregre in helping to continue the preservation of the culture of the Mardi Gras Indians. Forty percent of the sales will be given to the individual chief or tribe represented in the painting.

Some Paintings Represent:

Chief Tootie Montana
Chief Darryl Montana
Chief Clarence Delcour
Chief Charles Taylor
Second Chief David Peters Montana
And More

Prices from $2,000 to $5,000

Novelty Items available

Credit Cards, Checks and Cash accepted

Sunday, January 20 - Sunday, February 10, 2008

6:00 p.m. - 8:00p.m.

Xavier University Library Gallery

Next to the Barn

For more information call 504-289-6029